OFFICE MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT:—Setting up of a Working Group on Right to Information and Promotion of open and transparent Government.

There is widespread agreement on the need for a clean and responsive administration based on the principle of accountability, openness, decentralisation and citizen orientation. In the context of the National Debate of Effective and Responsive Adminstration initated by the Government of India, it has been decided to formulate specific measures for the introduction of greater transparency in the functioning of Government and public bodies, with reference to both their own employees, and interaction
